Location: Rock Springs, WY

Pay: Depends on Experience

Benefits: Benefits include 401K, profit sharing, medical insurance, paid time off, paid training, set Monday-Friday work schedule, discounted products and the opportunity to participate in company and community events.

Job Description:

Western Wyoming Beverages is seeking a full-time Operations Management Trainee (OMT) for its Rock Springs, WY location. The position will be responsible for learning the logistics side of the business from the ground up to develop industry, management and relational know how for Western Wyoming Beverages' business functions. The OMT will spend time learning each facet of the business with specific focus on the managerial needs of warehousing, route management and transportation. The OMT will also gain a knowledge of soda sales management, beer sales management and management of our outlying branches in Evanston and Jackson. The training program will position the OMT to be a lead candidate for a Management Level position within the Western Wyoming Beverages Operations division within 6-9 months and ultimately develop the candidate to be a contributing member to the company's management team. The OMT will not only look to learn and understand each position but will also develop and integrate process improvements in each position to drive efficiencies. The position will require some travel to the company's other locations in Jackson and Evanston, WY.

Attention to detail, organization and self-motivation are all necessary characteristics for the position. This position will require a strong logistics/supply-chain background. The ideal candidate will possess excellent computer and customer service skills, be extremely dependable, work well as part of a team and have the desire to go beyond the job description to develop and implement strategies to improve our business.

Desired Qualifications:

A Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Management, or Supply Chain Management.

Relevant work experience in Supply Chain, Sales or Marketing.
