Job Description:

Western Wyoming Beverages is seeking a full-time Management Trainee for its Rock Springs, WY location. The position will be responsible for learning the business from the “ground up” to develop industry, management and relational know how for Western Wyoming Beverages’ business functions. The management trainee will spend time learning each facet of the business and the managerial needs of each area including warehousing, route management, soda sales management, beer sales management and management of our outlying branches in Evanston and Jackson. The position will spend time specifically focusing on the sales management portion of the business understanding pricing decisions, marketing programs and key customers gaining a mastery level of experience in each segment. The Management Trainee program will position the candidate to be a lead candidate for a Management Level position within Western Wyoming Beverages within 6-9 months and ultimately developing the candidate to be a contributing member to the company’s management team. The Management Trainee will not only look to learn and understand each position but will also develop and integrate process improvements in each position to drive efficiencies, sales and profitability. The position will require frequent travel to the company’s other locations in Jackson and Evanston, WY and should be prepared to accept a management position in either of those locations should one become available.

Attention to detail, organization and self-motivation are all necessary characteristics for the position. This position will require a strong marketing and sales background. The ideal candidate will possess excellent computer and customer service skills, be extremely dependable, work well as part of a team and have the desire to go beyond the job description to develop and implement strategies to improve our business.

Desired Qualifications:

A Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration, Management, Supply Chain Management, Marketing, or Sales.

Relevant work experience in Supply Chain, Sales or Marketing.
